

JAN 8-11
American Association for Hand Surgery

JAN 10-12
American Society
for Peripheral Nerve

JAN 10-14
American Society for Reconstructive Microsurgery

EDUCATIONAL SUPPORT OPPORTUNITES

AAHS COMPREHENSIVE HAND SURGERY REVIEW COURSE Friday, January 10 $5000

This CME activity addresses the principles of common topics covered on board exams, the Hand Surgery certification examination and resident-in-training examinations. This is a CME course and support requires a Letter of Agreement for Commercial Support which is attached. Additional registration is required to attend the course.

AAHS SCIENTIFIC PAPER SESSIONS $1,500 per course track

Throughout this program, a series of basic and clinical research papers chosen by the Program Committee will be presented. Topics will include arthritis, congenital, peripheral nerve, trauma, tumor, tendon, and microvascular. The objective of these moderated sessions is to expose the participants to ongoing research in the field of hand and upper extremity surgery and rehabilitation. This is a CME course and support requires a Letter of Agreement for Commercial Support which is attached. Additional registration is required to attend the course.

AAHS/ASPN INSTRUCTIONAL COURSE TRACK Wednesday, January 8 – Friday, January 10 $3000 /track

AAHS will offer the popular instructional courses. There will be 24 courses over 3 days. Please view the program for the extensive topics covered. These are CME courses and support requires a Letter of Agreement for Commercial Support which is attached. This is a CME course and support requires a Letter of Agreement for Commercial Support which is attached. Additional registration is required to attend the course.

AAHS GUEST LECTURES:

INVITED GUEST LECTURER Wednesday, January 8 $2,500

The invited speaker is to be announced. This is a CME course and support requires a Letter of Agreement for Commercial Support which is attached. Additional registration is required to attend the course.

AAHS JOSEPH DANYO INVITED LECTURER Friday, January 10 $2,500

This lecture honors Dr. Joseph Danyo, founding father of the American Association for Hand Surgery. This year's lecturer is to be announced. This is a CME course and support requires a Letter of Agreement for Commercial Support which is attached. Additional registration is required to attend the course.

AAHS/ASPN/ASRM JOINT PRESIDENTIAL KEYNOTE LECTURE Saturday, January 11 $10,000

Featured Speaker Eric N. Olson, MD, Department of Molecular Biology, UT Southwestern. This is a CME course and support requires a Letter of Agreement for Commercial Support which is attached. Additional registration is required to attend the course.

ASPN GUEST LECTURES:

INVITED GUEST LECTURER

Friday, January 10

$2,500

This year's invited speaker is Scott Kozin, MD, Shriners Children's Hospital in Philadelphia, PA. This is a CME course and support requires a Letter of Agreement for Commercial Support which is attached. Additional registration is required to attend the course.

ASPN/ASRM INVITED LECTURE

Sunday, January 12

$5,000

Featured Speaker Andrew J. Feustel, PhD; NASA Astronaut. This is a CME course and support requires a Letter of Agreement for Commercial Support which is attached. Additional registration is required to attend the course.
